

Low Countries History Seminar, 2019/20 \(IHR London, UK\)

Discussion published by Ulrich Tiedau on Wednesday, September 11, 2019

Convenors: Liesbeth Corens (Queen Mary), Anne Goldgar (King's College London), Ben Kaplan (UCL), Ulrich Tiedau (UCL), Joanna Woodall (Courtauld)

Meetings: Fridays at 5:15 pm at the Institute for Historical Research, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU. All meetings will be held in Wolfson Room I, in the basement. All welcome!

Website: <https://www.history.ac.uk/seminars/low-countries-history>

Autumn Term

27 September Jonas van Tol (Amsterdam), "William of Orange and the French Wars of Religion"

11 October Karen Hollewand (Utrecht), "Sex and scholarship: the banishment of Hadriaan Beverland"

22 November Anne Goldgar (KCL), "Marketing Arctic knowledge: travel literature and the passions in the seventeenth century"

Spring Term

17 January - Daniel Margócsy (Cambridge), "A Disease of ships and intestines: a maritime history of worms"

31 January - Mark Ponte (Amsterdam), "'All blacks that come to this city': An Afro-Atlantic community in seventeenth-century Amsterdam"

14 February - Jelle van Lottum (Huygens Institute, Amsterdam), "Labour migration to the Dutch Republic: a maritime perspective"

13 March - Ad Putter (Bristol), "The Dutch Hat Makers of Medieval London"

27 March - Freya Sierhuis (York), title t. b. c.

Summer Term

1 May - Margaret Schotte (York University, Ontario), "'Paper Sailors': Competing Notions of Expertise in Dutch Nautical Manuals"

15 May - Michael Depreter (Oxford), "The Count of Flanders, the Towns, and England. Patterns of Competing and Complementary Diplomacies in Times of Revolt (14th-15th c.)"