H-Ukraine

H-Ukraine is an online platform dedicated to promoting and advancing scholarly contributions to the field of Ukrainian studies. We aim to incorporate interdisciplinary work that examines the history of Ukraine and its place within the wider region. H-Ukraine is not a political forum, but rather a professional network that serves scholars, students, and the interested public. This site is meant to connect individuals and groups through respectful dialogue in order to share the latest news of recent publications, book reviews, theoretical approaches and research methodologies, and teaching resources.
