CALL FOR PAPERS

Decentering the Human - Why/Because Object-Oriented Ontology (OOO)

Kaiak Editions - <http://www.kaiak-pj.it/it/>

Deadline: 31 October 2019

Abstract: max. 500 words

mail: rivistakaiak@libero.it

The book will be the first Italian publication on the topic of Object-Oriented Ontology (OOO). It will present and discuss the main OOO claims and positions within the contemporary philosophical debates. Any contribution which involves a critical assessment of OOO will be evaluated.

Possible topics:

- Anti-mining: undermining, overmining, duomining;
- Withdrawal: real object vs. sensual object;
- Flatness: liberal vs. equalitarian perspective
- Vicarious causation: panpsychism vs. polypsychism;
- Subscendence in mereological relations;
- OOO between Speculative Realism and New Materialism;
- OOO and Ecology: global warming, biodiversity, catastrophe;
- OOO and Media Theory: apparatus, screen, Internet of Things (IoT);
- OOO and symbolic crisis: paleo-ontology, symbiosis, homeotechnology;
- OOO, contemporary art and aesthetics as first philosophy;
- OOO and the heritage of classical metaphysics (substance);
- OOO and the heritage of phenomenology (intentional object)
- OOO between Post-Human and Anthropocene
- OOO within the contemporary ontological debate (post-continental as well as post-analytical)
