

Work/Cited: Stories from the Archives of The New York Public Library

Discussion published by Meredith Mann on Thursday, October 17, 2019

Type:

Event

Date:

October 22, 2019

Location:

New York, United States

Subject Fields:

American History / Studies, Archival Science, Political Science, Sexuality Studies, Women's & Gender History / Studies

In celebration of Archives Week, The New York Public Library's Manuscripts and Archives Division invites the H-Net community to attend:

Work/Cited: Stories from the Archives of The New York Public Library Tuesday, October 22nd 6pm

Archives are laboratories for new knowledge. And what better way to explore this concept than to hear from three authors who have recently completed research for their books in The New York Public Library's Brooke Russell Astor Reading Room for Manuscripts, Archives, and Rare Books? In this panel discussion, Alicia Cheng (This Is What Democracy Looked Like: A Visual History of the Printed Ballot), Lauren Santangelo (Suffrage and the City: New York Women Battle for the Ballot) and Scott Stern (The Trials of Nina McCall: Sex, Surveillance, and the Decades-Long Government Plan to Imprison 'Promiscuous' Women) will discuss their scholarship and experience working with the Library's special collections, including the challenges, rewards, and unexpected elements they encountered along the way.

This program is free, but due to limited space we encourage advance registration.

Contact Info:

Meredith Mann

Brooke Russell Astor Reading Room for Manuscripts, Archives, and Rare Books
The New York Public Library

Contact Email:

meredithmann@nypl.org

URL:

<https://www.showclix.com/event/workcited>