

Call for think pieces on global governance

Announcement published by Velibor Jakovleski on Wednesday, October 30, 2019

Type:

Call for Publications

Subject Fields:

Diplomacy and International Relations, Law and Legal History, Political History / Studies, Research and Methodology, Social Sciences

The Global aims to contribute to a deeper and better-informed debate about the past, present and future of global governance, precisely when we need it most.

We welcome short submissions [500 - 1000 words], informed by ongoing research or analysis/commentary on current affairs. Our audience is a mix of international academics, graduate students, and the Geneva-based international policy community.

Contributors have included leading scholars Peter Haas [here], Cynthia Weber [here], and Michael Barnett [here].

If you are interested in contributing, or for more information, contact Velibor Jakovleski at velibor.jakovleski@graduateinstitute.ch.

URL:

<https://theglobal.blog/>