

Learn to Read Old German Script in Winston-Salem, NC

Announcement published by Julie Tomberlin on Friday, November 15, 2019

Type:

Workshop

Date:

July 25, 2020 to August 1, 2020

Location:

North Carolina, United States

Subject Fields:

Atlantic History / Studies, German History / Studies, Historic Preservation, American History / Studies, Religious Studies and Theology

Join us for the Geist Institute's 6th Old German Script Course, hosted this year by the Moravian Ministries Foundation in Winston-Salem, NC. 30 hours of small group instruction. This is an intensive, practical course in deciphering OG Script, designed for researchers who have a strong reading knowledge of German. Participants are invited to submit images of manuscripts needed for their personal research, to be used as class exercises. Instructor Julie Tomberlin, PhD in German Literature has 30+ years experience transcribing Old German Script documents. More information and registration information on our website. Class location is a 7-minute walk from historic Old Salem and students have the option to lodge in a dorm of Salem College or in a nearby hotel or Air B&B.

Contact Info:

Julie Tomberlin

Contact Email:

geistinstitute@gmail.com

URL:

<http://germanscript.geistinstitute.org>