

Call for applications: Teaching Fellowships in “Performing Religion”: Lived Religion in the Digital Age (Saint Louis University)

Announcement published by Samantha Arten on Monday, December 16, 2019

Type:

Fellowship

Date:

January 15, 2020

Location:

Missouri, United States

Subject Fields:

African American History / Studies, American History / Studies, Digital Humanities, Religious Studies and Theology, Urban History / Studies

We invite applications from instructional faculty at any rank to support new and/or redesigned courses that address topics, themes, or subjects relevant to the study of lived religion in the digital age. We are especially interested in supporting efforts to bring students into interaction with religious diversity through site visits; urban, community, or neighborhood studies; and/or digital storytelling. Proposals that seek collaboration with community partners, across disciplines of study, and/or across teaching contexts are encouraged. Joint proposals also encouraged. No prior digital humanities experience is required. Deadline January 15, 2020. Learn more: www.religioninplace.org. For questions contact co-director Rachel Lindsey (rachel.lindsey@slu.edu).

Contact Email:

livedreligion@slu.edu

URL:

<http://www.religioninplace.org>

Citation: Samantha Arten. Call for applications: Teaching Fellowships in “Performing Religion”: Lived Religion in the Digital Age (Saint Louis University). H-Announce. 05-27-2022.

<https://networks.h-net.org/node/73374/announcements/5502600/call-applications-teaching-fellowships-%E2%80%9Cperforming-religion%E2%80%9D>

Licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-No Derivative Works 3.0 United States License.