The H-Portugal team of editors is based at CHAM – Centre for the Humanities, Universidade NOVA de Lisboa / Universidade dos Açores.

Alice Santiago Faria

Carla Alferes Pinto
Art Historian, researcher. She is currently developing the project ‘VESTE _ Dress the Court: Costume, Gender, and Identity(ies)’ (FCT - DL 57/2016/CP1453/CT0069). The focus of her work is the history and cultures of fashion in the Early Modern Period.

Carla Vieira
Early Modern Historian, researcher. She is currently developing the post-doctoral project ‘Nation between Empires. Sephardic Diaspora and the Anglo-Portuguese alliance’, sponsored by Fundação para a Ciência e Tecnologia: SFRH/BPD/109606/2015. Her main research interests are the Western Sephardic diaspora and the history of New Christians and Inquisition in Early Modern Iberia.

João Figueroa-Rêgo
Early Modern Historian, researcher. He participates in several international projects and is the author of numerous academic-scientific texts in different countries. In 202 he received the Fundação Eng.º António de Almeida Prize. He is currently Deputy Director of CHAM – Centre for the Humanities and editor of the ‘Anais de História de Além-mar’.

Mariana Boscario
Art Historian, researcher. She is currently developing the project ‘VESTE _ Dress the Court: Costume, Gender, and Identity(ies)’ (FCT - DL 57/2016/CP1453/CT0069). The focus of her work is the history and cultures of fashion in the Early Modern Period.