

NETSOL-Call for Papers for Spring 2020 Issue-Interdisciplinary, Open-Access Journal

Announcement published by Tamer Balci on Wednesday, February 5, 2020

Type:

Journal

Location:

Texas, United States

Subject Fields:

World History / Studies, Teaching and Learning, Social History / Studies, Humanities, Social Sciences

Faculty-owned, faculty-run open-access interdisciplinary journal, NETSOL (ISSN 2469-4002), is accepting submissions for Spring 2020 issue.

NETSOL <http://www.netsoljournal.net/> is a peer-reviewed, biannual, e-journal, publishing previously unpublished original research articles and book reviews. All articles submitted for publication go through a double-blind peer-review process. NETSOL impact factor for 2018-19: 1.135.

NETSOL is indexed by Index Copernicus, DOAJ, ResearchBib, International Institute of Organized Research (I2OR) #5225, International Scientific Indexing, and Academia.edu.

NETSOL is NOT a predatory journal. No membership fee is required for submissions. There is no charge for submission/registration fee. No membership is required for submissions. There is no charge for article submission, processing, or publication.

Last day of submission for Spring issue is March 15, 2020. Submissions after this date will be evaluated for the fall issue.

Editor,

TAMER BALCI

Contact Info:

tamer.balci@utrgv.edu

Contact Email:

tamer.balci@utrgv.edu

URL:

<http://www.netsoljournal.net/>