ANNC: Conference: Eastern European-Ottoman-Persian Mobility Dynamics (Germany, May 2020)

Discussion published by Florian Riedler on Thursday, February 27, 2020
Type: Conference
Date: May 21, 2020 to May 23, 2020
Location: Germany
Subject Fields: Borderlands, Early Modern History and Period Studies, Eastern Europe History / Studies, Immigration & Migration History / Studies, Middle East History / Studies

International Conference

Eastern European-Ottoman-Persian Mobility Dynamics

Giessen, 21-23 May 2020

Program

Thursday, 21 May

11:00-12:00

Introduction and outlook: Stefan Rohdewald, Florian Riedler: Transottoman Mobility Dynamics

13:00-17:00

Section 1: Mobile Biographies

Panel 1:

Veruschka Wagner, Lives in Pieces: The Biographies of Domestic Slaves in Early Modern Istanbul

Nana Kharebava, The Life and Death of Queen Ketevan (d. 1624): From Georgia to Iran and India

Andreas Helmedach, Francesco Muazzo: A Venetian Professional Soldier in the First Morean War (1684-1699)

Lybomir Pozharliev, The Transimperial Biography of Petar Popov (d. 1894) and the First Bulgarian Steamship Company

Discussant: Johannes Paulmann
Panel 2:

Hacer Topaktaş, Istanbul and Egypt in the Eyes of the Eighteenth-Century Polish Traveler Jan Potocki

Giorgio Rota, European Renegades and Persian Converts during the Safavid Period

Zaur Gasimov, Turkophone Scholars in Exile: The Case of Ahmet Caferoğlu

Chair: Anna Vlachopoulou

18:00–20:00

Keynote lecture: Anna-Katharina Hornidge, Follow the Discourse: Methodological Considerations for Studying Transregional Flows Through the Lens of Discourse

Friday, 22 May

9:00–13:00

Section 2: Knowledge on the Move

Panel 1:

Ani Sargsian, Persian in the Ottoman Empire as Reflected in Selected Farhangs (Dictionaries) of the 16th Century: A Cultural Transottoman Configuration

Taisiya Leber, Interreligious Polemics and Early Book Printing in the Transottoman Context

Barbara Henning, Follow the Text: Transottoman Trajectories of Early-Modern Ottoman Political Advice Literature

Dennis Dierks, Muslim Modernity as Local and Translocal Practice: Transimperial Entanglements of Modernisation Discourses between Russia, the Habsburg Monarchy and the Ottoman Empire

Eveline Dierauff, (Christian) Arabs and (Russian) Jews: Identity and Zionism Debates in the Transottoman Migration Society of Palestine (1880–1925)

Discussants: Tijana Kristić, Henning Sievert

Panel 2:

Nikolas Pissis, Knowledge on the Move in the Princely Library of Nikolaos Mavrokordatos (1720s)

Nil Palabiyik, Johannes Leunclavius (1541–1594) and the Rewards of Writing the History of the Ottomans in Early Modern Europe

Diliara Brileva, Depicting the Middle East: Travelogues in the Journal Shura (1908-1917)

Discussants: Michael Khodarkovsky, Mustafa Tuna

14:00–18:00

Section 3: Object Mobility

Panel 1:

Florian Riedler, Objects in a Transottoman Context: Geographical, Symbolic and Temporal Mobilities

Arkadiusz Blaszczyk, Byzantine by Shape, Sino-Mongolian by Name? A Muscovite “Tournament of Value” and the Crimean Tatar Appropriation of the Golden Hanging Seal (baysa)

Alexandr Osipian, Dynamics of Cultural Appropriation: Oriental Carpets in Early Modern Poland-Lithuania.

Vitalij Fastovskij, Scientists from Russia in the “Near East”: Christian Antiquities and National Self-Consciousness (1895–1914)

Discussant: Michal WasiucioneK

Panel 2:

Yuka Kadoi, Candlesticks: Material and Stylistic Exchanges across the Transottomanica Contact Zone

Nicole Kançal-Ferrari, Patterning Divergence and Likeness: Exquisite Textiles and Other Objects in Eastern Europe, 15th-17th Centuries

Suraiya Faroqhi, Made in Istanbul, Delhi or Agra’: Serving Imperial and Princely Courts in the Ottoman and Mughal Worlds

19:00–20:00

Roundtable discussion with Albrecht Fuess, Anna-Katharina Hornidge, Cyrus Schayegh, and Giancarlo Casale

Saturday, 23 May 10:00–15:00

Excursion to Schloss Friedrichstein in Bad Wildungen

Visit to the museum with collection of Turcica and to the city church: Hendrik Ziegler, Andreas Helmedach, Robert Born

Contact Info:

Florian Riedler

University of Giessen, East European History

Contact Email: Florian.Riedler@geschichte.uni-giessen.de
URL: https://www.transottomanica.de