H-SHERA Reviews

Discussion published by Hanna Chuchvaha on Thursday, February 27, 2020
H-SHERA Reviews is recruiting new reviewers. It is a great way to promote the work of your colleagues and make a contribution to H-SHERA. Writing a book review for H-Net/H-SHERA is similar to writing a review for any academic paper periodical. The reviewer receives a hard copy of the book or an electronic copy (if she/he prefers and if it is available). Each review is edited and copyedited by professional copyeditors. We can publish longer reviews and review articles up to 2500 words with footnotes and references.

Since the reviews are published online they can be easily googled. The reviews also appear in the bibliographic databases similar to any other paper periodical reviews and linked to the Library of Congress.

If you are interested in reviewing books for H-SHERA, please contact:

Hanna Chuchvaha, Book Review Editor
hannac@ualberta.ca