

Ab Imperio 2020 Annual Program: When Postimperial Meets Postnational: Envisioning New Forms of Groupness in Historical Perspective

Announcement published by Aleksandr Turbin on Monday, May 11, 2020

Type:

Call for Publications

Date:

July 1, 2020

Subject Fields:

Asian History / Studies, Nationalism History / Studies, Russian or Soviet History / Studies, Colonial and Post-Colonial History / Studies

Dear Colleagues,

The editors of the Ab Imperio Journal invite colleagues to join the collective intellectual effort and share their studies which fit the main theme of the 2020 Annual Program: "When Postimperial Meets Postnational: Envisioning New Forms of Groupness in Historical Perspective".

Manuscripts can be submitted at the latest by the following dates: July 1 for the issue 2/2020, September 1 for the issue 3/2020, December 1 for the issue 4/2020.

See more about the Annual Program and sub-topics of each issue at <https://abimperio.blogspot.com/>

2/2020 "We the People": The "Nation" between Tribe and Republic (September 2020);

3/2020 "The Good, the Bad and the Ugly": Hybridity, the Nationalizing Empire, and Imperialist Nationalism (November 2020);

4/2020 Groupness and Its Discontent: Historical Visions of the "Post" Order (January 2021).

Ab Imperio Quarterly is an international humanities and social sciences peer-reviewed journal dedicated to studies in new imperial history and the interdisciplinary and comparative study of nationalism and nationalities in the post-Soviet space. The Journal serves as an international forum for scholars reflecting on historical and contemporary encounters with diversity in composite societies.

The latest issue (4/2019) is available at <https://muse.jhu.edu/issue/42103>

Contact Info:

Aleksandr Turbin,

Higher School of Economics in Saint-Petersburg.

Contact Email:

aturbin@hse.ru