

CfP: CEHS Panels at 2021 AHA (Deadline June 8th, 2020!)

Discussion published by Benjamin Marschke on Sunday, May 31, 2020

As an affiliate society of the American Historical Association (AHA), the Central European History Society (CEHS) sponsors a variety of panels on German, Habsburg, and Central European History at the AHA's Annual Meeting (in Seattle, 7-10 January 2021).

CEHS both solo-sponsors and co-sponsors panels.

Co-sponsorship is for those panels that have already been accepted by the AHA Program Committee.

Solo-sponsorship is for panels that have not been accepted by the AHA — these panels can be placed on the program by CEHS.

If your panel was already accepted by the AHA Program Committee and you would like to receive co-sponsorship from CEHS, or if your panel has not been accepted by the AHA program committee (or was not proposed to the AHA), but nonetheless merits consideration for solo-sponsorship by CEHS, then please send your panel materials to Benjamin Marschke (marschke@humboldt.edu). CEHS expects panels submitted for sponsorship to demonstrate gender diversity.

This call for proposals requires immediate attention: the deadline for submission is Monday, 8 June, 2021. Proposals will be reviewed by the Executive Board of the CEHS.
