Christianity in Modern China Series, Palgrave, Editor: Cindy Yik-yi Chu (Hong Kong Baptist University)

This series addresses Christianity in China from the time of the late Ming and early Qing dynasties to the present. It includes a number of disciplines—history, political science, theology, religious studies, gender studies and sociology. Not only is the series inter-disciplinary, it also encourages inter-religious dialogue. It covers the presence of the Catholic Church, the Protestant Churches, and the Orthodox Church in China. The editor would like to seek monographs for the series. If you are interested, please contact Cindy Yik-yi Chu at cindychu@hkbu.edu.hk
