We are seeking proposals for chapters for possible inclusion in the forthcoming book on “South Asian Politics”. This book is intended to offer authoritative and up-to-date surveys of original research in a particular subject area, with essays giving critical examinations of the progress and direction of debates, as well as a foundation for future research. Please send your proposed title, abstract (no more than 400 words), name, and affiliation to nazmulislamglobal71@gmail.com by September 25, 2020.

The book will attempt to identify and define the area of South Asian political history, political system, foreign policy, regional cooperation in South Asia, contemporary debates in South Asia, and the future of South Asia at various national and international scopes.

This book is therefore expected to be a major reference for expert reading. This book will capitalize on the emergence of a new paradigm, which considers South Asia in the 21st century as globally interconnected and mediated by new geopolitical and strategic logic.

The book is multidisciplinary in its approach and is organized according to the following themes. (while submitting your proposal, please indicate to which section you are proposing an entry). We are also open for the areas not covered in this list but closely related to South Asia, do not hesitate to express your idea if you think it is interesting to international academics.
