CALL FOR NOMINATIONS: Central European History Society Hans Rosenberg Book Prize, Deadline Extended

Discussion published by Benjamin Marschke on Wednesday, August 5, 2020

The Central European History Society (CEHS) is extending the deadline for nominations for the Hans Rosenberg Book Prize. This annual prize honors the best book in central European history published in English by permanent residents of North America. This year’s award considers books with an imprint of 2019.

Central European history is understood to include all German-speaking countries as well as areas previously included within the Habsburg monarchy. The CEHS discourages submissions of reprints, second editions, multi-authored anthologies, and document publications. The award will be announced at the annual meeting of the American Historical Association in January 2021.

Nominations received by 31 August 2020 will receive full consideration. Please send books to each of the following three persons, and please note the changed membership of the committee (books already sent to a former committee member will be forwarded and will receive full consideration):
