From John Sullivan:

Nahuatl Fundraising Concert

Support Nahuatl Communities in the COVID-19 Pandemic

The Nahua singer and songwriter, Crispín Martínez Rosas, will offer a virtual concert on December 12 at 8pm Central Time.

Proceeds will be used to distribute informational audios and posters on COVID-19, prepared in several variants of Nahuatl, as well as face masks and food pantry items, in indigenous communities in Chicontepec, Veracruz, Huejutla, Hidalgo, Atliaca, Guerrero, and Sierra Norte de Puebla.

Tickets are US$15

Make a payment or donation from the US via VENMO to @apoyo-pueblos-nahuas. List your payment as "concert ticket" and include your email to receive the Zoom link to the concert.
