We would like to invite you to contribute to the second special issue of the Journal of Korean and Asian Arts (KAA) that is dedicated to the interdisciplinary research on Art Studies of Korea and Asia. The Journal of Korean and Asian Arts (KAA) is a peer-reviewed English language journal published by the Korean National Research Center for the Arts (KRECA), Korean National University of Arts. The focus of KAA includes, but is not limited to, studies on music, drama, film, theater, multimedia, dance, visual arts, traditional arts, art education, and art management.

The second Special Issue will be "Theories and Methodologies of Korean Arts Studies." A collection of essays will be selected from top journals specializing in Korean music, drama, dance, painting, visual arts, and traditional arts, and translated into English.

Apart from the selected translations, this issue will include new articles as usual. We are accepting articles covering general topics in Asian arts. Articles should be original essays of no more than 7,000 words on topics related to arts studies and will be subject to an extensive review process before publication. All submissions will undergo anonymous review to guarantee high academic quality and relevance to the subject. The journal is being published online as well as in print.

The Special Issue will be published in May 2021, which means that we will need your manuscript by February 28th, 2021. You can submit your manuscript through our website submission link: <http://kaa.kreca.or.kr/thesis/ThesisAgree.asp>

We will be happy to provide you with any assistance during the submission and publication process. For further information, please have a look at the journal's website (<http://kaa.kreca.or.kr>) and do not hesitate to contact us at our Editorial Office (kreca@karts.ac.kr). Thank you for your support.

Sincerely and with kind regards from Seoul
