Announcement published by Adrianna Link on Friday, February 5, 2021

Type:

Fellowship

Date:

March 5, 2021

Location:

Pennsylvania, United States

Subject Fields:

Native American History / Studies, Indigenous Studies, American History / Studies

The Library & Museum of the American Philosophical Society in Philadelphia invites applications for short-term research fellowships for projects seeking to make use of its collections.

The Library & Museum's collections make it among the premier institutions for documenting and exhibiting the history of the American Revolution and founding, the history of science from Newton to NASA, Native American languages and culture, and the development of American anthropology. The Library & Museum houses over 14 million manuscripts; 275,000 volumes of printed materials and bound periodicals; 250,000 images, fine art, and other objects; thousands of maps and prints; and more than 3,500 hours of audio recordings of Native American languages.

Comprehensive, searchable guides and finding aids to our collections are available online at <https://www.amphilsoc.org/library/search-collections> and <http://amphilsoc.pastperfectonline.com/>.

See individual fellowship descriptions below for more information and instructions on how to apply. For a complete listing of all APS grant and fellowship opportunities, visit www.amphilsoc.org/grants/fellowships.
