New Issue of The PRC History Review, Vol. 3, No. 1 (January 2018)

We are very pleased to announce that a preview of the forthcoming issue of The PRC History Review is now available. Issue 3:1, New Perspectives in PRC History, edited by Alexander Day, collects essays first presented at "The Chan Workshop on the New History of the People's Republic of China," (Occidental College, February 27th, 2015).

The issue will be published in full in 2018, but you can now read Sigrid Schmalzer's excellent contribution, "Toward a Transnational, Trans-1978 History of Food Politics in China: An Exploratory Paper."
