Discussion published by Clare Griffin on Friday, July 31, 2015

Dear Colleagues,

New content has been added to H-EarlySlavic Resources (to be found on the right-hand side of the home page).

My thanks to Martin Podolak, who has kindly created a page on language resources, as well as adding to the electronic libraries page. The blogs and websites page has also been updated. If you have suggestions for content for these pages, ideas for new pages, or you would like to help create a page for H-EarlySlavic Resources, you can contact me here.

Best Wishes,

Clare
