The Huguenot Society of South Carolina publishes Transactions of the Huguenot Society of South Carolina, examining different aspects of Huguenot history and genealogy. We encourage the submission of articles for consideration for publication. All submissions must include endnotes and other necessary documentation in accordance with most recent MLA style, and permission to publish when needed.

Transactions has been published roughly annually since 1886. The Society is in the process of having an ISSN assigned to the journal, and making it available electronically via EBSCOhost.
