

CFP: Journal of Austrian-American History

Announcement published by Thorsten Wilhelm on Thursday, June 17, 2021

Type:

Call for Papers

Date:

August 31, 2021

Subject Fields:

Cultural History / Studies, Eastern Europe History / Studies, European History / Studies, German History / Studies, Political History / Studies

The Journal of Austrian-American History, sponsored by the Botstiber Institute for Austrian-American Studies, and published by Penn State University Press, is an open access, peer-reviewed scholarly journal.

Authors are invited to submit articles based on original research that speak to the relationship between the United States and Austria, including the historical Habsburg Empire. Contributions from scholars working in history and related disciplines -- such as economics, history of science, law, political science, and cultural studies, broadly construed -- are welcome.

Submissions are considered on a rolling basis, with the priority deadline for Volume 6 (2021) set for August 31, 2021.

Manuscripts should generally have between 9,000 and 11,000 words, including footnotes in the Chicago Manual of Style format. Correspondence for the editor, including inquiries, should be addressed to journal@botstiber.org

Contact Email:

mburri@botstiber.org

URL:

<https://botstiberbiaas.org/publications/>