

Workshop - Archiving Community Oral Histories

Announcement published by Summer Cherland on Wednesday, June 23, 2021

Type:

Workshop

Date:

July 26, 2021

Subject Fields:

Oral History, Teaching and Learning

Free for students!

Join us for this interactive and intensive multi-day workshop for oral historians. Learn to analyze and index completed oral histories from the South Phoenix Oral History Project's signature collection.

-

Upon completion, you will publish a dynamic summary of one oral history interview to our website. Each summary contains an index, biographical story, metadata, and video or audio clips. All of your work will be appropriately credited to you.

-

Daily meetings 10am AZ time via Zoom. No meeting July 29th.

-

Cost: $100 per person.

Waivers and scholarships are available. Apply for financial assistance here before registering (students or others welcome to apply for waivers): <https://forms.gle/YmoXFofhSXigg3Bn6>

-

Click here for our flyer

-

Notes:

Where do I log in? Zoom link provided upon check in. We will also send you a calendar invite the week before the workshop.

Historians of all fields, interests and expertise welcome.

Contact Info:

South Phoenix Oral History Project

<https://southphoenixoralhistory.com/>

Contact Email:

historysouthmountain@gmail.com

URL:

<https://smcc-maricopa.nbsstore.net/spoh-community-oral-history-archive-workshop>