

TOC Asian Ethnology, vol. 80, issue 1 \(2021\)

Discussion published by Benjamin Dorman on Thursday, July 15, 2021

Dear colleagues,

We wish to acknowledge that Asian Ethnology has reached a significant academic milestone since its inception in 1942. We are marking the eightieth birthday of the journal this year by publishing its eightieth volume.

Asian Ethnology 80-1, a special issue on South Asian Nationalisms guest edited by Frank J. Korom and Jan Magnusson, is now available as downloadable PDFs or via your browser.

Thank you for your continued support of Asian Ethnology.

Kind regards,

Benjamin Dorman and Frank J. Korom

Co-editors, Asian Ethnology

Special Issue: South Asian Nationalisms

Guest Editors: Frank J. Korom and Jan Magnusson

Articles

Frank J. Korom and Jan Magnusson

Guest Editors' Introduction

Peter van der Veer

What Transcends the Nation?

Jürgen Schaflechner

A Specter Is Haunting Pakistan! Nationalism in Pakistan's Horror Pulp Fiction

Jan Magnusson

Jellyfishing in the Postcolonial Nation State: Baltistan through the Zomia Lens

Mara Malagodi

Holy Cows and Constitutional Nationalism in Nepal

Mari Miyamoto, Jan Magnusson and Frank J. Korom

Animal Slaughter and Religious Nationalism in Bhutan

Frank J. Korom

New Year's Day Performances as Nationalist Discourse in Bangladesh

Susan A. Reed

Bathed in Blood: Ritual Performance as Political Critique

Boris Wille

Defending Islam in an Islamic State: Islamic Nationalist Discourse, Democratic Reform, and the Religious Commitment of the State in the Maldives

Ted Svensson

South Asian Nationalisms: Concluding Reflections

Book reviews