Department of History Assistant Professor

University of Notre Dame

The Department of History of the University of Notre Dame invites applications for a tenure-track position in Latinx history at the rank of assistant professor. All subspecialties are encouraged to apply, including Afro-Latinx history. Applicants will be expected to participate in the intellectual life of and contribute to the curriculum of the Institute for Latino Studies. Candidates should submit a letter of application, c.v., and three letters of recommendation at: <https://apply.interfolio.com/90443>. The University of Notre Dame is using Interfolio's ByCommittee to conduct this search. Applicants to this position receive a free Dossier account and can send all application materials, including confidential letters of recommendation, free of charge. The closing date for receipt of applications is October 1, 2021. Please address any inquiries or nominations to Professor Robert Sullivan, Search Committee Chair, Robert.E.Sullivan.158@nd.edu. Information about Notre Dame is available here, and about the department at history.nd.edu.

The University of Notre Dame seeks to attract, develop, and retain the highest quality faculty, staff and administration. The University is an Equal Opportunity Employer, and is committed to building a culturally diverse workplace. We strongly encourage applications from female and minority candidates and those candidates attracted to a university with a Catholic identity. Moreover, Notre Dame prohibits discrimination against veterans or disabled qualified individuals, and requires affirmative action by covered contractors to employ and advance veterans and qualified individuals with disabilities in compliance with 41 CFR 60-741.5(a) and 41 CFR 60-300.5(a).
