The Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures is pleased to host the 64th Midwest Conference on Asian Affairs (MCAA) from October 16 - 18, 2015 at Washington University in St. Louis.

A regional conference of the Association of Asian Studies (AAS), MCAA has provided a forum for scholars and teachers of Asian Studies in the Midwest to gather and exchange knowledge about the history and cultures of Asia for over a half-century. The conference will feature individual paper presentations, as well as panels, and diamond sessions, and roundtables at which faculty, graduate and undergraduate students will present and discuss new research and pedagogical tools.

Dr. Timothy Brook (AAS President and Professor of History, University of British Columbia) will present the keynote speech on October 17 at the conference banquet. Please see the website for a full conference program. The early registration deadline is September 15. All attendees must be registered members of MCAA.
