

Call for Applications: 2022-2023 USHMM Annual Fellowship Competition Now Open

Announcement published by Samantha Hinckley on Monday, August 16, 2021

Type:

Fellowship

Date:

August 15, 2021 to November 15, 2021

Subject Fields:

Modern European History / Studies, Jewish History / Studies, Holocaust, Genocide, and Memory Studies, Race / Ethnic Studies, Women's & Gender History / Studies

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

2022-2023 USHMM Annual Fellowship Opportunities

The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum's Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies is pleased to award fellowships to support significant research and writing about the Holocaust. We welcome proposals from scholars in all academic disciplines and award specific fellowships-in-residence to candidates working on their dissertations (ABD). A principal focus of the overall fellowship program is to ensure the development of a new generation of scholars, and those early in their careers are especially encouraged to apply.

For fellowship competition guidelines and to apply, please visit the Mandel Center's Annual Fellowships website.

Contact Info:

Visiting Scholar Programs

Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies

United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

(202) 314-7829

Contact Email:

vscholars@ushmm.org

URL:

<http://www.ushmm.org/fellowship-competition>