Dear all,

I am pleased to invite you to the on-line film festival “Cine/Mobility: Latin-American Cinema Across Borders”, which will take place from 5 October 2021 to 5 November 2021. The festival is an academic and curatorial project exploring multiple paths of mobility and border crossing between Latin-America and the Atlantic, focusing on stories and experiences of migration, community-making, solidarity and resistance. The festival consists of two strands: a program of virtual screenings, Q&As and a series of round tables with filmmakers, curators, activists and film programmers. All events are free. Check out the full program on the website \(https://sites.google.com/brookes.ac.uk/cinemobility/home\), and book a place via Eventbrite (<https://bit.ly/3zAyTRO>).

“Cine/Mobility” was created by Dalila Missero, post-doctoral researcher in Film Studies at Oxford Brookes University, and funded through Oxford Brookes Collaborative Research and Travel Award grant scheme. The project is organised and developed in collaboration with Analía Fraser. For any question, you can contact dmissero@brookes.ac.uk
