

Registration deadline extended: Invitation to German-Japanese Legal Symposium on Extra-judicial Dispute Resolution by the Department of Japanese Law of the FernUniversität in Hagen

Announcement published by Anna Suzuki-Klasen on Thursday, September 23, 2021

Type:

Symposium

Date:

September 30, 2021 to October 1, 2021

Location:

Germany

Subject Fields:

Law and Legal History, Japanese History / Studies, German History / Studies

The Department for Japanese Law of the FernUniversität in Hagen cordially invites you to a one-and-a-half-day hybrid symposium to commemorate 30 years of Japanese law at the FernUniversität in Hagen. It is organised jointly with the German-Japanese Association of Jurists (DJJV), will take place on 30 September and 1 October 2021, and consists of two parts, for which you can register selectively or in total and either in person or online. We would be delighted to welcome you in person or online and would be grateful if you shared this invitation among your networks.

1. On Thursday, 30 September 2021 between 4 pm and 6 pm CEST a (German-language) ceremony will be held at the Japan Foundation's Japanese Cultural Institute in Cologne, followed by a Japanese reception. The keynote address will be given by Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. mult. Jürgen Basedow on the topic "Japan and Germany in the network of international uniform law".
2. On Friday, 1 October 2021 starting from 9 am CEST, an English-language symposium on "Extra-judicial Dispute Resolution in Germany and Japan" will also be held at the Japanese Cultural Institute in Cologne. Representatives from academia and practice will comparatively discuss recent developments in commercial and investment arbitration and mediation, including the establishment of the Japan International Dispute Resolution Center and the settlement of mass tort cases, as well as the digitalisation of ADR in both countries. There will be several opportunities for informal exchanges both online and offline, including a networking event for young professionals in Japanese law, during a bentô lunch reception and a walk in the garden.

Due to the ongoing pandemic, the number of participants on site is limited. Therefore, there is also the possibility to participate online. In any case, registration is necessary. Please use the link provided in the conference program. Although it is no longer possible to register for in-person attendance, registration for virtual participation has been extended to 28 September 2021 midnight (DE). For further details, please refer to the conference program available at the conference website at <https://www.fernuni-hagen.de/rechtsbeziehungen/jubilaemjr.shtml>.

Please direct any queries to japanrecht@fernuni-hagen.de.

Citation: Anna Suzuki-Klasen. Registration deadline extended: Invitation to German-Japanese Legal Symposium on Extra-judicial Dispute Resolution by the Department of Japanese Law of the FernUniversität in Hagen. H-Announce. 09-23-2021.

<https://networks.h-net.org/node/73374/announcements/8357045/registration-deadline-extended-invitation-german-japanese-legal> Licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-No Derivative Works 3.0 United States License.

Background: The Department of Japanese Law in Hagen was established in 1989 as a research and teaching unit within the Faculty of Law in order to provide students access to the Japanese legal system in German. At the time, this was one of - if not the - first university programme to award a dedicated university degree in Japanese law outside of Japan. Jun.-Prof. Weitzdörfer has recently succeeded the Department's founder, Prof. Hans-Peter Marutschke.

Contact Info:

Main Organisers:

Dr. Anna Suzuki-Klasen
Prof. Dr. Julius Weitzdörfer

Department of Japanese Law
FernUniversität in Hagen (Germany)

Contact Email:

japanrecht@fernuni-hagen.de

URL:

<http://www.fernuni-hagen.de/rechtsbeziehungen/abteilungen/japanrecht/>