

7th Derrida Today Conference

Announcement published by Mina Karavanta on Tuesday, October 5, 2021

Type:

Conference

Date:

November 15, 2021

Location:

United States

Subject Fields:

Human Rights, Humanities, Literature, Philosophy, Race Studies

The Derrida Today Conference will focus on the ongoing value of either Derrida's work, or deconstruction, to the political-ethical, cultural, artistic and public debates and philosophical futures that confront us. The conference will be broadly interdisciplinary and invites contributions from a range of academic, disciplinary and cultural contexts. We will accept papers and panel proposals from scholars, academics and postgraduates, on any aspect of Derrida's work, or deconstruction, in relation to various topics as well as contemporary issues. While the conference welcomes contributions on diverse topics and from any discipline in relation to Derrida's work and deconstruction, it is particularly interested in discussions exploring the concept of "democracy," especially in light of the 6TH January storming of the Capitol in the USA, and the consequences of the current COVID pandemic.

Director: Nicole Anderson (Editor: Derrida Today Journal (EUP); Arizona State University, USA)

Organizing Committee: Karen Asp, Stella Gaon, Mina Karavanta, Julian Knowles, Phil Lynes, Lynn Turner, Laura Williams.

Due Dates for New Abstracts and Panel Proposals: 15th November 2021 (notification of acceptance of new abstracts will be in early-Dec 2021), abstracts to be sent to: derridatodayconference@gmail.com

NB: if your abstract was previously 'accepted' for the 2020 conference (postponed due to COVID), it is automatically accepted for the June 2022 conference in Washington, D.C. For more information and instructions, go to the Derrida Today Website: <https://derridatoday.com.au/>
