

Buddhism in the Sea of Islands series 2021 - October webinar

Announcement published by Sioh-Yang Tan on Wednesday, October 13, 2021

Type:

Seminar

Date:

October 21, 2021

Location:

Australia

Subject Fields:

Australian and New Zealand History / Studies, Demographic History / Studies, Immigration & Migration History / Studies, Religious Studies and Theology, Sociology

Buddhism in the Sea of Islands webinar series - October 2021

This month, Sally McAra and Mark Mullins from the University of Auckland speak about 'Buddhism in Aotearoa New Zealand: Multiple Sources and Diverse Forms' on Thursday 21 October. Information for the webinar is as follows:

Time: October 21, 2021 (Thursday) 04:00 PM Canberra, Melbourne, Sydney

Format: Online zoom meeting with 45-min presentation & 45-min Q&A

Register

at:

<https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/buddhism-in-the-sea-of-islands-webinar-series-october-webinar-registration-153265157211>

"Buddhism in the Sea of Islands" webinar series, co-organised by the Humanistic Buddhism Centre, Nan Tien Institute, Western Sydney University and Deakin University, brings together an international, multidisciplinary group of scholars to examine the flows and counterflows of Buddhism in Pacific contexts.

Info: <https://www.nantien.edu.au/buddhism-in-the-sea-of-islands-webinar-series/>

To join Buddhism in the Pacific Research Network please email buddhism\_network@nantien.edu.au

Contact Info:

Buddhism in the Pacific Research Network

Contact Email:

buddhism\_network@nantien.edu.au

URL:

<https://www.nantien.edu.au/buddhism-in-the-sea-of-islands-webinar-series/>