Dear Colleagues,

It is my pleasure to announce the launch of the online exhibition "Travels in Tokugawa Japan (1603-1868): a Virtual Journey": <https://t.co/2bGgqJKAjn?amp=1>

I curated the exhibition in collaboration with the John Rylands Research Institute and Library of the University of Manchester. The exhibition is based on items from the Japanese Maps collection (you can browse the now complete collection on Manchester Digital Collections: <https://www.digitalcollections.manchester.ac.uk/collections/japanesemaps/1>).

Best regards,

Sonia Favi
