

Reconciling Multiculturalism in Today's Canada

Announcement published by Jenn Fedun on Monday, November 8, 2021

Type:

Symposium

Date:

November 12, 2021 to January 21, 2022

Location:

Canada

Subject Fields:

Colonial and Post-Colonial History / Studies, Sociology, Public Policy, Indigenous Studies, Immigration & Migration History / Studies

Recognizing 2021 as the fiftieth year of Canada's policy of multiculturalism, the Reconciling Multiculturalism in Today's Canada national symposium will be held virtually on set dates from November 12 2021 to January 21, 2022.

Co-hosted by three University of Alberta Institutes -- the Canadian Institute of Ukrainian Studies (CIUS), l'Institut Marcelle et Louis Desrochers pour le patrimoine et les recherches transdisciplinaires en francophonies canadiennes et internationales (IMELDA), and the Kule Institute for Advanced Study (KIAS) -- this symposium will provide a meaningful opportunity for dialogue on what being 'Canadian' means in an increasingly intercultural, post-Truth and Reconciliation country.

Participation is open to all and completely free, though pre-registration is required. To learn more about our speakers and to register, please visit <https://m50.artsrn.ualberta.ca/>. Questions may be directed to mc50@ualberta.ca.

Contact Info:

mc50@ualberta.ca

jfedun@ualberta.ca

Contact Email:

mc50@ualberta.ca

URL:

<https://m50.artsrn.ualberta.ca>