

Unsettling Surveillance - Panel Symposium, Contingent Systems: Art and/as Algorithmic Critique

Announcement published by Patrick Moskwa on Tuesday, November 9, 2021

Type:

Symposium

Date:

November 12, 2021

Location:

Alberta, Canada

Subject Fields:

Art, Art History & Visual Studies, Cultural History / Studies, Digital Humanities, Fine Arts, Sexuality Studies

Friday, Nov. 12th, 2021 | 10am-12pm MST ONLINE

UNSETTLING SURVEILLANCE

Virtual Panel Presentation & Discussion featuring:

- Lauren Lee McCarthy | On Someone
- Felipe Rivas San Martín | Post-Algorithmic Strategies A Queer Critique of Discourse in Scientific Images
- Dr. Bill Balaskas | What Happens 'Before the Bullet Hits the Body': Dismantling Predictive Policing through Public Art

Moderated by Dr. Susan Cahill

For further information & ZOOM link: <https://ikgallery.ca/contingent-systems-symposium/>

All are welcome!

Warmly,

Contingent Systems team

Contact Info:

Contingent Systems

Ashley Scarlett, Lisa Lipton, Patrick Moskwa

<https://ikgallery.ca/contingent-systems-symposium/>

Contact Email:

contingent.systems@auarts.ca

URL:

<https://ikgallery.ca/>