The Centre for Family and Population Research (CFPR) at National University of Singapore (NUS) is planning to hold, online, the 2nd International Conference and Training Workshop on Household and Living Arrangement Projections for Informed Decision-Making on 13-14 January 2022, in collaboration with Population Division of the United Nations (UNPD), Asian Population Association (APA), Center for Healthy Aging and Development Study, National School of Development (CHADS/NSD) at Peking University (PKU), China Population and Development Research Centre (CPDRC) and Population Association of Singapore (PAS). The 1st International Conference and Training Workshop on Household and Living Arrangement Projections for Informed Decision-Making was held on May 9-11, 2019 in Beijing, jointly organized by CPDRC, CHADS/NSD at PKU, and CFPR at NUS.

This conference will present the cutting-edge development in the methods and applications of household and living arrangement projections, and will also provide valuable opportunity for interested participants to learn about the ProFamy and the newly developed R software DemoRates. Conference participation is open to the public and free of charge. Please visit the conference website for registration and more information:
