

SESAH Graduate Student Research Fellowship -- Deadline EXTENDED until February 4th

Announcement published by Lydia Brandt on Thursday, January 20, 2022

Type:

Fellowship

Date:

January 14, 2022 to February 4, 2022

Location:

United States

Subject Fields:

Architecture and Architectural History, Art, Art History & Visual Studies, Historic Preservation

The Graduate Student Research Fellowship, established in 2018, is intended to assist graduate students in architectural history or historic preservation conduct research for their thesis or dissertation. The Fellowship awards $1000 to offset research-related expenses and travel.

Eligibility Criteria

Applicants must be members of SESAHA to be eligible. To join SESAHA or renew a membership, visit this link.

Applicants must be enrolled in a Masters or PhD program in architectural history or historic preservation or a similar program at a college or university located in the twelve-state geographic region embraced by SESAHA (Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia). All applications will be considered, but preference will be given to applicants whose thesis or dissertation topic explores the architectural history of the SESAHA geographic region.

Requirements for Recipients

Recipients must submit a report on the use of the funds within one year of receiving the fellowship. They are also encouraged to present their research and project studies as part of the SESAHA conference and to submit the results of their research for publication in Arris. Recipients should also acknowledge the fellowship in their completed thesis or dissertation.

Call for Applications

SESAHA invites applications for its 2022 Graduate Student Research Fellowship.

The deadline for applications: February 4, 2022 (deadline extended)

Applications should include the following materials in pdf:

1. statement (not to exceed one page, typed and double-spaced) describing the research topic/objective

2. proposed budget to include research-related costs such as travel expenses to libraries, archives or research sites, archival/research fees, images, etc.
3. curriculum vitae
4. letter of recommendation from a faculty advisor or principal professor. Provide contact information (name, email address, telephone number) for the referring faculty.

All submissions should be sent via email to the chair of the Graduate Student Research Fellowship Committee:

Philip Herrington, James Madison University, herrinpm@jmu.edu

Contact Info:

Philip Herrington, James Madison University

Contact Email:

herrinpm@jmu.edu

URL:

<https://sesah.org/graduate-student-research-fellowship/>