The 2022 annual conference of the Frank Lloyd Wright Building Conservancy, to be held in Chicago and online, October 19-23, will center on the theme of "The Progressive City: Wright & his Chicago Contemporaries." Papers may touch not only on architecture and urban planning of the time, but also linked reform movements. The Conservancy seeks proposals for papers related to this broad theme to be presented during the conference. The deadline to submit is March 16. A more in-depth explication of the theme & submission requirements can be found on our website at savewright.org/proposals
