In light of the Aljazeera report 'Degrees of Abuse' (listen/read here) and the recent Harvard letter (read report here), we are running a symposium for students and staff on sexual harassment and power in higher education. The symposium will be held on Friday 25th February and will be both in-person (at the University of Oxford) and streaming online. On Saturday 26th February, we will have a series of workshops for students and staff.

For more information about our programme (which can be found here), or to sign-up to attend, please see our website (here).

We look forward to working towards a better, safer academia with you.
