We take this opportunity to invite chapter contributions for our upcoming edited volume, Health and Society: Multidisciplinary Perspectives from India, to be published by Springer: Singapore. This volume adopts a multidisciplinary lens and interrogates the intersections between anthropology, history, law, sociology, and policy studies. The primary objective of this volume is to trace the historical trajectories and contemporary debates on public health in India.

Please include the title of your chapter, full name of author(s), affiliated institution and designation, keywords (5 – 7) and email ID while submitting your abstract.

For any queries, please contact the editors Dr. Jagriti Gangopadhyay (jagriti20121987@gmail.com) and Dr. Ranjana Saha (saha.ranjana@gmail.com).

Key themes of this edited volume include, but are not limited to:

- Science, Health, and Technology
- Gender and Medicine
- Pandemic and the Indian State
- Mental Health and Society
- Hygiene, Sanitation, and Public Health
- Health and Policies: Global Perspectives

Kindly follow the following format for full chapter submissions:

- Font: Times New Roman
- Font size: 12
- Alignment: Justified
- Line Spacing: 2
- Referencing style: APA