Hybrid Workshop: “Continuity and Change Throughout the Ottoman Longue Durée,” Third Annual Mid-Atlantic Ottomanist Workshop (MAOW), University of Mary Washington, Fredericksburg, VA, 1-2 April 2022.

This regional workshop will provide an opportunity for scholars of Ottoman studies to gather, discuss their research, and receive substantive feedback. This initiative will bring together scholars of all stages who are working to advance the study of the Ottoman Empire and its interactions with the wider world from the late 13th century through the early 20th century. As we will be following a hybrid format, remote participants are welcome. Information: https://maow.umwblogs.org/.
