2022 CAORC-INYA Scholars Fellowship Program for U.S. Postgraduate Scholars conducting Research Work on Myanmar/Burma in a Third Country

Fellowship awards from $3,200 to $4,000 for a maximum of 3 months

The Inya Institute announces the 2022 CAORC-INYA Scholars Fellowship competition for research that will contribute to studies on Myanmar in any aspect of its wide linguistic, cultural, religious, and ethnic diversity and to a better understanding of the country's past or present political and socio-economic situation. Applicants must be U.S. postgraduate scholars who have obtained their PhD degree in the last 10 years (at the time of submitting application).

The 2022 CAORC-INYA Scholars will have until December 15, 2022, to complete their research work in a Third Country of their choice.

The program is funded by CAORC through a grant from the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs at the U.S. State Department.

Information about the fellowship competition

- Research must contribute to studies on Myanmar in any aspect of its wide linguistic, cultural, religious, and ethnic diversity and to a better understanding of the country's past or present political and socio-economic situation. Any field of research will be considered, including the arts, humanities, social sciences, economics, political sciences, law, environment studies, and public health;
