CFP: Eleventh Accounting History International Conference (Deadline 31 March)

Discussion published by PJ Neal on Sunday, March 27, 2022

The Eleventh Accounting History International Conference (11AHIC) is to be held in Portsmouth, UK from 7 – 9 September 2022 with the theme of “How does accounting shape the past, present and future of society?”. This is hosted by the School of Business and Law, University of Portsmouth, and supported by the Accounting History SIG of AFAANZ and the journal. The conference web site is found at: https://www.port.ac.uk/11AHIC. Submission of papers should be submitted in Word format no later than 31 March 2022 to https://www.conftool.org/11ahic/. A special issue of the journal on the conference theme is scheduled to be published following the event and the call for papers will follow.

The Accounting History International Emerging Scholars’ Colloquium (AHIESC) will be held as part of the 11AHIC on 7 September 2022. Individuals who wish to express an interest in attending the AHIESC are requested to forward their research proposals, brief biographical details and a CV to Carolyn Fowler no later than 31 March 2022 at the following address: carolyn.fowler@vuw.ac.nz. The call for proposals is at the following link under ‘call for papers’ towards the end of the page: https://journals.sagepub.com/home/ach.
