Special double issue: New Critical Approaches to the Greek-Turkish Population Exchange

Guest editor: Onur Yıldırım

Introduction 145

Onur Yıldırım

Before The War: Orthodox Christians in Anatolia, 1880s–1914 153

Ayşe Ozil

The Population Exchange and Politics in the Historiography of Turkey and Greece 174

Alexandros Lampropou

A Gender Analysis of the Population Exchange Between Greece and Turkey 199

Gülen Göktürk Baltas

The Loss of the Greek Literary Society in Constantinople: The Dismantling of an Institution, Displacement of a Library, and Dissolution of an Intellectual Hub 224

Firuzan Melike Sümertaş

Armenians in 1920s Greece: Turkey’s Unwanted Minority, The League of Nations’ Burden, Greece’s “Other” Refugees 252

Merih Erol

Exchanging Holiness for Harmony, Bringing Pontus to Patria: The Refugee Panagia on the Move 275

Aytek Soner Alpan

The Roles of Refugee and Exchangee Associations in Greek and Turkish Civil Society 301

Doruk Işıkçı

The Refugee Sports Clubs in Greece as Carriers of Asia Minor Memory (1922–40) 328

Andreas Baltas

The Asymmetries of Displacement: The Spatial Aspects of the Greek-Turkish Population Exchange 348

Melis Cankara

Symbolic Cretanness: Descendants of Cretan Muslims in Present-Day Turkey 372

Efpraxia Nerantzaki
Compensation Schemes Following Forced Migration Movements in the 20th Century: A Comparative Perspective on Ottoman Greeks, Greek Muslims, East Germans, Palestinians, and Iraqi Jews

Ellinor Morack